

PURCHASING TERMS AND CONDITION

- On acceptance of any order suppliers must advise MEDATS LLC of any changes to approvals held from all third parties.
- The supplier shall notify MEDATS LLC of any changes to product, process, facility or documentation applicable to this purchase.
- Supplier shall immediately contain and notify MEDATS LLC of any parts or materials believed to be non-conforming and agree disposition as appropriate, this includes any parts already delivered.
- Suppliers must not accept order amendments verbally or written unless signed by purchasing authority.
- The quality assurance representative of MEDATS LLC, its customers and appropriate regulatory authorities reserve the right to verify at source that purchased materials/product conforms to order requirements.
- Quality records relating to product conformity and/or process including statistical results, shall be effectively archived, readily retrievable, and made available on request and must not be destroyed without prior consent.
- Sub tier suppliers shall not be used without prior arrangement of MEDATS LLC process substantiation shall be made available on request. The supplier shall flow down the requirements of this purchase order and associated specifications to sub-tier suppliers as applicable.
- This order is subject to MEDATS LLC terms and conditions. MEDATS LLC operate within their ISO 9001 QMS certification. This includes but not limited to the following:
 - The requirements for internal and external approval of products and services, methods processes and the release of products and services as appropriate.
 - We will provide services and manufacture parts in a controlled manner ensuring competency of personnel, acceptable and managed external service providers.
 - That test and inspections processes are communicated along with our quality management system requirements to ensure adequate parts are produced with control and traceability. That staff are aware of the impact and potential counterfeit parts can have within the industry and have adequate training to identify them along with the requirements to provide a professional service within legal, ethical, and moral requirements.
- Goods must be accompanied by delivery note and C of C as appropriate.
- No part delivery is accepted without prior arrangement.
- Payment terms: Net 60 days from end of invoice month, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

MEDATS values quality suppliers and preference will be given to suppliers with ISO9001 or other relevant quality management certification.

